New Middle Class is Barbara Borok (lead vocal) and Mike Borok (guitar/vocal). Their many songwriter awards include Grand Prize at the 2003 Music to Life Songwriting Contest at the prestigious Kerrville Folk Festival in Texas. Intertwined musically and romantically for too many years, they sing about relationships and current events gone awry, sensible footwear, compulsive shopping, the origin of the universe, and desserts.

Their adventurously original songs have been played on over 50 radio stations and walk a thin line between the funny and the serious. New Middle Class seduces you with catchy melodies, driving rhythms, distinctive vocals, harmonies, and delightfully unexpected lyric twists and turns.

New Middle Class continues to climb the glamorous ladder of singer/songwriter success with the release of the new CD, and:
